

Guidelines for group visits to Museum Ons' Lieve Heer op Solder

More and more visitors are discovering Museum Ons' Lieve Heer op Solder. The intimate atmosphere in the relatively small rooms make a visit to this museum a unique experience for people from all over the world. To preserve this intimate atmosphere for future visitors, we were forced to lay down some ground rules for group visits.

What this means for your visit

There are two ways for groups to visit our museum:

- With a guided tour led by a guide from Museum Ons' Lieve Heer op Solder
- With a free audio tour

Guided tour

Guided tours can only be given by official guides from Museum Ons' Lieve Heer op Solder. Group guides and chaperones who are not on the museum staff are not allowed to give guided tours or short explanations during the visit. Guides and chaperones visiting the museum with their group will not be charged admission.

Cost of guided tour: € 70.00 for 10 people (excl. museum entrance fee/max. 20 people per hour)

Audio tour

The audio tour is included in the museum entrance fee and is available in the following languages: Dutch, English, French, German, Italian, Russian and Spanish. Large groups (max. 30 people) will be divided into smaller groups of no more than 10 people. Tours will start with a minimum interval of 5 minutes between each group.

Duration: 1 hour

Bookings

Due to the limited space available in the listed building, all groups must book their visit in advance. Groups who have not booked in advance will not be admitted. A request for a group visit will not be registered as a booking until you have received confirmation.

Finally

Due to the fragile nature of the floors, all visitors to the museum are required to wear protective overshoes during their visit. These are available at the museum entrance and are worn over the visitor's shoes. Stiletto heels are not allowed in the museum.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
